Jazz on the Beach

July 16th – 17, 2011

The flyer is titled 'Jazz on the Beach' in a purple script font. Below the title, it says 'Atlantic Beach, SC', 'July 16-17, 2011', '6pm-10 pm', and 'Free Admission'. There are two images of saxophones, one on a yellow background and one on a blue background. The text continues: 'Bring your beach chair and experience 2 evenings full of jazz greats, fine wines and local fresh fare. (No coolers Please)'. It lists the lineups for Saturday, July 16 (Alois Rogers Jazz Trio, Ann Caldwell & Trio, The Bhakti Project, Surprise Guest Artists) and Sunday, July 17 (Montique & Kelvin Perkins, Sherman Basso & Palms of Jazz, Frankie Chazhan & Friends). A small photo of a man playing a saxophone is included. The text says: 'An outdoor stage will overlook the picturesque Atlantic Ocean and come alive with sizzling performances by the finest jazz artists of today! -Light fare will be available for purchase-'. At the bottom, it says 'Sponsored by: Friends of the Pearl (Black Pearl Organization)' and includes a small photo of a beach scene.

Come out for two nights of incredible Jazz on the beach. What could be better than a warm summer night on the beach with the smooth sounds of Jazz filling the air!! Two nights, the 16th and 17th, from 6-10pm. Bring a chair and enjoy this FREE event! Hope to see you there. If you have any questions please call the Atlantic Beach Town Hall, Phone: (843) 663-2284.
